I joined ALPCA and read about the Arizona meets.

What plates do you collect and which are your favorites? Where do you get most of your plates?

I collect Arizona only. I am interested in scenic plates (no town names) only.

Do you have tips for newer members on the best places to acquire plates?

I get plates at yard sales, thrift stores, old farms, barns, and ASK people. You never know what you will find.

I have been a regular for the past two years

A 1910 Oregon plate in good condition found by my daughter in the Pendleton dump

How many plates are in your collection? What types? What do you wish you had more of?

I have 73 of the Arizona scenic plates. I am looking for Southern Arizona plates like the Territorial Prison, Organ Pipe, San Xavier Del Bac, Kitt Peak, Bisbee Copper Mine, etc. You have? Call 928-535-9100

Do you display your plates?

I display my plates in my man cave garage

What other non-license plate hobbies do you have?

I am into baseball cards and fishing. I also know Dan Davis from Channel 3 High Roads, Robin Sewell from Arizona Highways, for free advertising.

What is the best plate you have seen?

There is a plate in the Show Low area that says 'COP DOC' (he is a cop, she is a doctor)
